Events Report

Hockey Competition – Sally reported she was pleased with the team and getting 3rd place , Imogen reported that some people didn't participate properly.

Twilight Ball- Sally reported it was a good night, Emma reported it was a good venue and Sam reported the band were ok and it's a shame about the missbehaviour of a Chase Member,

Chase Presentation Evening- It was reported that it needed better advertisement and to maybe look at making more of a night by trying a dinner dance again .

Shugborough Hall- Imogen commented it was expensive for what it was and Emma reported it would have been better with a larger turnout.

Treasurers report- £456.33 spent

£3651.17 in the bank

17 Paid members and 10 non paid members

Fred is owed money for the football competition.

Competitions

Jack and craig were going to participate in the pool Competition.

Sally was to arrange the volleyball team for December

We were going to withdraw from the silage competition as no one was willing to take part.

We didn't feel we had anyone with the correct certificates in order to place in the efficiency with safety competition therefore we were not going to take part.

A go kaerting team was put forward, consisting of Jack , Andy, Stu, emmie and ian.

Any Other Business –

Show floats- ideas were suggested of Muller and yeo valley which are already taken. Frank suggested that as there is no deadline we should choose closer to the time as they adverts will be better know .

Christmas meal- the event was proposed and deposits were received from, Jack, Ben , Craid, Imogen, Sally, Emily H, caz, sam , ian, Emma, Andy, sara, Mark, Becky, Fred and sarah W.

The club officer training day was to be attended by sam and Imogen at Chase Water.

Frank bought up the policy of 1 member to 3 guests and we decided we were against the policy as it was lowering the levels of membership.

The meeting was closed at 9.10pm.
