

Chase Young Farmers Business Meeting

Tuesday 8th February 2011

The Lamb and Flag, Little Haywood at 8pm

Apologies for Absence were received from Emily Harris

Record of Attendance was circulated.

Minutes taken by Emma Stubbs

Minutes of the last meeting are available on the Young Farmers website, there were no matters arising.

Correspondence

Action Press was read out, Along with a posters for Spring ball, entertainments and winking man disco. Information was shown on some short courses that were available and Rachel Gee agreed to attend the press release training evening. Information was also given on chedale YFC quiz.

Sam Craddock read out the up coming programme for February which consisted of Tubing at stoke ski centre and a talk about shooting.

Events Report

County quiz- Was said to be an interesting night , good turn out

Bowling practice- Jack said this was slightly pricy and the club agreed to go ahead with it again but at Stafford.

Bowling competition- This had a good turn out and chase didn't do too bad with Emily harris being the highest female scorer all night.

New year ball- Every one agreed this was a good night and like the themes and entertainment on the night,.

New members and games evening- This was said to be a good night with good ideas however more people were needed to make it more exciting.

Social and funding meeting- Emma stated how under 16s were no longer able to attend yfc discos and it was to be discussed about under aged drinking.

Quiz- This was said to be a good night however poorly attended.

Treasurers report

Current account £3570.91

Income £80.50

Expenditure £20

Surplus £60.50

36Members

Competitions

Craig jack and fred agreed to take part in the fence erecting competition at chorley.

It was agreed that the club would enter 1 team into the pool competition.

Jack, craig, fred, ed caz and ian agreed to participate in the darts competition at moddershall cricket club , however we still needed 1 more girl to make the team complete.

Members addressed an interest to the clay pigeon shoot competition and agreed to attend at the cost of £10 per person.

The bowling scores were given with chase getting a score of 939 and Emily harris being the overall highest female scorer with 105.

It was mentioned to the club that the jazz dancing team came first in the competition and that imogen bloxham came third in junior member of the year and was also selected to represent Staffordshire at west midlands in the intermediate just a minute competition.

Any Other Business –

Emma went through the new policies for underage drinking and the club didn't have many views and agreed with the proposed views.

Frank mentioned the chase charity auction and gave out letters and posters to help promote the evening in order to make it a great success.

The float was to be between Barclays, specsavers, and skoda and the first choice was to be specsavers followed by the Barclays waterslide.

The next meeting was 15th feb at stoke ski centre

The meeting was closed at 9.10 and a talk was given on safe guarding.

Signed..... Date.....